Local information:
Korcula is considered as the pearl of the southern Dalmatia and offers to its visitors picturesque walled old town of Korcula, magnificent coastal panoramas, dreamlike fishing villages and idyllic coves. The sixth largest island in Croatia, Korcula is 20 miles long and rather narrow, between 4 and 5 miles wide on average. This island is known for its dense forest and the ancient Greeks called the island Black Korcula (Kerkyra melaina) for this reason. Away from the tourist-places on the coast of the island Korcula, in the island's interior one discovers a unique green landscape with panoramic views and hidden cultural treasure, which one can discover either on foot or by bicycle. The coast of the island of Korcula is very indented with a large number of bays and coves. The main resorts are Korcula Town (people call it “Little Dubrovnik” because of its medieval squares, churches, palaces and houses), Vela Luka and Lumbarda. There’s also smaller towns and villages dotted around on the island for those looking for a more secluded holiday. Korcula is one of Croatia’s most treasured islands although, perhaps somewhat surprisingly, not quite as popular as some of its slightly more northern counterparts, such as Brac and Hvar. This may be because the island is a little further away to get to (both from Split or Dubrovnik) and some of the most convenient ferry services to the island only run in summer. The island of Marco Polo will awaken the explorer, athlete, gourmet, hedonist, romantic that lies within you... So do not hesitate for even a moment. Get to know island Korcula, and yourself along with it.

Prizba consists of several smaller bays: Podjamje, Danca, Mala and Velika Prizba and two peninsulas: Ratak and Priscapac. Priscapac is also a tourist resort with a pebble beach and accompanying tourist facilities. On both sides of the Ratak peninsula there are also pebble beaches, and nearby there is a car camp, restaurants, a coffee bar, a post office and smaller shops. There is also a small monastery of the Daughters of Mercy on Ratko, where Mass is held every Sunday. At Prizba you can rent a motorboat with which you can go on a trip to the islands that are about 800 m away from the coast. The islands are Vrhovnjak, Sritnjak, Crklica and Stupa, they are uninhabited and have many places suitable for swimming and sunbathing. There is also a diving center on the Priscapac peninsula
