This impressive villa is situated directly on the coast in the bay of Gruz, some 2 kilometres away from the Old Town of Dubrovnik. Kazbel Castle features 12 spacious double rooms and one suite. If the walls could only talk what stories they could tell. Each room is a work of art and each has its own special place in history.

All of the 13 rooms have been decorated and furnished individually to make your staying in Dubrovnik unique. They even each have their own coat of arms taken from the old Dubrovnik ancestry. The rooms blend the style of the past with the convenience of the new perfectly as each room has all the comforts guests have come to expect from a modern boutique villa. Full air conditioning, a mini bar, HD-TV and free wireless internet access make sure that your stay at our Dubrovnik luxury accommodation is comfortable in every way.

Just to add to the historical experience each single piece of furniture in Castle Kazbek has been handmade in order to achieve the true old Dubrovnik feeling of the highest class. Some of the Superior Double rooms even have the exposed wooden beam ceilings and attic windows making these rooms beautiful and timeless. You have the feeling that you have stepped back through the centuries, to a time when dukes and duchesses roamed this palace. These rooms are particularly popular with our guests celebrating a special occasion or romantic break.

Featuring 13 bedrooms, it is suitable for larger groups, family reunions, business trips or even for weddings. Castle Kazbek has a restaurant where you can try various local delicates and get to know a peace of Croatian culture.

The over a thousand year old history of Dubrovnik is visible in every part of this city.
The city is a living museum and a live stage, and has an ideal connection between its historical past and the modern day. It is surrounded by medieval walls that are 1940 metres long and are preserved in their original form. They are open to visitors and are the city's greatest attraction. Since 1979 the town has been under UNSECO protection. Dubrovnik is mainly a cultural destination, which asides from monuments of interest, offers a series of cultural events and festivals. Dubrovnik is a destination where you can enjoy a rest, and has extremely good air connections with all the larger European centres.

Dubrovnik is a city that charms, a city that you fall in love with and always return to like new, to discover more unique experiences. The historical city of Dubrovnik, the former centre of the Dubrovnik Republic, is surrounded by city walls 2 km long which defended the city against attack both on land and at sea for centuries. Within the city walls a beautiful city developed with many churches, palaces and cultural monuments as well as the Stradun, a well known boardwalk for both young and old from all over the world which was once the stage for all major events. Many islands close by, a crystal blue sea, rich natural and cultural heritage, the Mljet National Park, historical villas and promenades are what make the Dubrovnik Riviera one of the most attractive destinations in Croatia. Here one can enjoy various activities, enjoy authentic food and wine and the hospitality of the people. The whole Dubrovnik region is well-known for its fascinating landscapes, abundant Mediterranean vegetation, mild climate and interesting smaller settlements. In former times, it became part of the Dubrovnik Republic territory, becoming connected with the city via historical, economic and trade route ties.

In tourism, it is now called the Dubrovnik Riviera
